HKCCMA members enjoy the following benefits:

Professional Membership & Designation
The prestige status of belonging to the only association of credit professionals in Hong Kong granting designations in credit management. Members are entitled to use the Association's designatory letters (FCCMA or MCCMA), as the status and industry recognition. HKCCMA is the only body which offers these recognized & professional designations in credit and collection industry in Hong Kong.

Networking
HKCCMA organizes various types of educational programs, seminars & social events which provide opportunities for good networking in the industry.

Membership Roster
A comprehensive listing of current members of the HKCCMA by individual and company name, available on-line in the Association's web-site.

Discount Services
Members can attend the training courses, seminars, social activities and functions organized by the Association or the Corporate Members at discount rate.

Publication
Members are entitled to get the copy of "Who's Who of Credit & Collection Practitioners in Hong Kong & Guangdong", free of charge.

Job Classifies
Members can have access to the Job Classifies, on-line in the association's web-site which is the database containing various credit job seekers' information. Members can also place your credit job opening here as a recruitment tool, free of charge.

Update of Local Legislation in the Industry
HKCCMA has actively participated in supporting the local legislation related to credit and collection industry. Members will be regularly updated of the progress.

Have Your Voice in the Industry
HKCCMA is the only professional body representing the interest of credit and collection practitioners in Hong Kong. As a member, you can have your voice in the industry by participating and even helping to organize the functions and activities of the Association.

For details, please feel free to visit of the Association's web-site at www.hkccma.com